

Draft Agenda

Workshop on Early Warning Systems Effectiveness of Early Warning Systems in Asia/Pacific

26.-28. May 2003 held in Bandung, Indonesia

26. May 2003

8.30-9.00	Registration of the participants
9.00-09.30	Opening and Welcome
09.30-10.00	Keynote speech: Dr. Wimpy S. Tjetjep, Director General, Ministry for Energy and Mineral Resources, Indonesia
10.00-10.30	Coffee Break/Press conference
10.30-13.00	Presentation of each Organization: based on the proposed annotated outline and the aide-memoire of the Workshop.
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.30	Presentation of each Organization/Country: State of the art of Early Warning Systems referring to the suggested starting points for discussion.
15.30-15.45	Coffee Break
15.45-17.00	Presentation of each Organization/Country: State of the art of Early Warning Systems referring to the suggested starting points for discussion.
18.00	Welcome Dinner

27. May 2003

9.00 – 11.00

Working groups:

- 1) Emerging Issues: Identification of current, emerging and future trends in early warning in natural and social sciences, engineering, technology, and public policy.
- 2) Early Warning & Sustainable Development: Identification and discussion of examples where knowledge and experience have been applied to implement early warning schemes and programs in the context of disaster reduction and sustainable development.
- 3) Sustaining the Early Warning Dialogue: Identification of needs (local, national, regional and international) to ensure sustainability of the research and applied programs for early warning.

11.00-11.30

Coffee Break

11.30-13.00

Continuing working groups

13.00-14.00

Lunch

14.00-15.30

Presentation of working group results

15.30-15.45

Coffee Break

15.45-17.00

Formulate a position paper with needs and recommendations as an input for the EWC II in Germany

18.00

Dinner

28. May 2003

8.00-12.00	Guided Field trip to Tankubanperahu Volcano near Bandung and visit a volcanic monitoring station and the active crater. Have a walk around the crater in beautiful scenery
12.00-13.00	Lunch
13.00-18.00	Back to Bandung with the opportunity of sight seeing
19.00	Farewell Dinner with traditional Angklung music performance